TREASON'S MASTERPIECE. Treason has done his worst?

A hand accurst

Has made the Nation orphan by a blow;
Has turned its hymns of joy to wall and woe,
As for a Father lost, a Sawtour state, And blood, and tolk, and anguish spent in vain! Half his great work was done, By victory won

By victory won

O'er recream chiefs and rebels in the field, comp-lied to bow the knee and homage yield; ted his calm break, from war and vengeses turned With generous pity tow'rds the wanquished yearned

Deep joy was in his soul
As o'er it roll
Sweet thoughts of peace and magnanimity, Wounds healed, wrath quelled, his country free,
Foes turned to friends, the bitter past forgiven;
Such thoughts as earthly power make line to hear

While all suspicton stept,
The assault crept
Into the circle where, in guardless state,
And in an instant, ere a hand could rise,
The nation's hope a slaughtered martyr lies! In peace, great martyr sleep!
Thy people weep,
But stop their terms to swear upon thy grave
The cours them died if for they bed diet to sme.
And the great bond, comented by thy blood, Thail stand unbrokes, as it still hath stood!

The traitor's flend-like act
By afern compact is us still closer 'gainst the murderous band is any with klood would deluxe ell the land, var quicked by the word, for merry kneel, pay it, granted, with the assantin's steel.

Oh, for this hellish doed.

Oh, for this hellish doed.

Thousands shall bleed,
That else had lived to blees thy gentle name by mercy wreathed with an immerial fame;
And traitors, from a nation's wrath, shall learn that octraged Pity's lears to drops of vergeturn.

This Distressing A flection—which reoders Life and Marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. From previous are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dresdrid consequences that, may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the predent! Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy chapting, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system

DR. D. H. SEELYE & CO., A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS. No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and eisewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleed, great hervonenes, being signed as when saleep, great nervousdess, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushings attended semetime with derangement of mind, were curred immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgengence and solitary habils, which ruin both body and mind, undiring them for either business, study, society or marriage.

Takes are some of the sed and meiancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, vir. Weakness of Sight, Loss of Museuser sever. Paipitation of the Back and Lunia, Pains in the Head, Dimense of Sight, Loss of Museuser sever. Paipitation of the Bart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

Maswally—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirita, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to Society, Seil-Distrust, Love of Solitade, Tunidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of courumption.

Who have injured themselves by a certain praction indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the bope of the country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of iffe by the consequences of deviating from the path o nature and indulging in a critain secret habit. Sucl parsons MUST, before contemplating

MARRIAGE MARRIAGE, Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most accessary requisites to promote committed happtfrees. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pligrimage; the prospect hourty darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy refection that the happiness of another becomes plighted with our own.
